

Please keep the law the way it is. We do not deserve to be disturbed by telemarketers during dinner and time with our families. If we want to solicit these people, we can call them ourselves if we need them.